

Fiesta. And the sun of celebration also rises. In Bombay. On December 21, 1970. Carries right on shining till the 24th. Four gorgeous, excitement-packed days of fun, frolic and festivity. The show in spotlight is the "Vanity Fair" organized by the Maharashtra State Women's Council and JS, the magazine that thinks innovatingly young and has already given Bombayites the JS Magical Mystery Tour earlier this year. A sensational something for everybody. Scan this page, take your pick and come to the fair. And if you unfortunately happen to be in Delhi, Calcutta, Madras or Thirupurakunram? Well, it's been a long time since you visited Bombay last, isn't that so?

SPOT THE JS GIRLS AND BOYS

COMPETITIONS GALORE AND PRIZES! PRIZES! PRIZES!

Roll up and try your luck and skill. Fab prizes for the winners. And that could easily mean you.

"Top Ten" top-of-the pops competition sponsored by the Gramophone Company of India. Select the ten best and most popular recent pop releases. Judged by famous singer, entertainer and recording star, Usha Iyer.

"Wonder Queen" selection sponsored by Voodoo, makers of contemporary cosmetics. Choose the prettiest girl out of a photographic group of ten. Surprise judge.

A JS girl and JS boy, switched every day, will be circulating on all four days amidst the merry throng at the fiesta.

They're Bombay students. You might even be personally friendly with a few of them. The girls will be sporting special JS scarves and the boys in trendy Liberty shirts.

The idea is to spot them, go up and introduce yourself and, if you are amongst the first six to do so, win yourself a free six-month subscription to the JS magazine.

Clues? Look out for them in the next issue of JS.

THE JS SOUND

Frug, monkey, watusi or just listen and ecstatically blow your mind to the way-out sound of the Combustibles (below) the Riot Squad (left) and the Busy Bees (below left) at the JS Teenage Ball on December 23.

Adding to the excitement will be the selection of Miss JS Bombay '70 and Mr. JS Bombay '70.

Also prizes for the trendiest and zaniest dressed swingers.

And gifts, trophies, presents. Plus a surprise spot star, psychedelic lights and go-go girls.
